Green Gully, Ben Nevis

“Exceeded expectations in every way. We learned much more than I could have hoped for.” - Susan

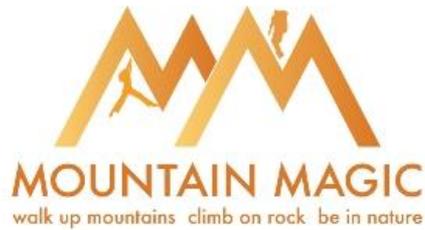

- Instructor We are all professional members of the Association of Mountaineering Instructors. Enthusiastic guides, patient instructors and experienced coaches, we love to see you enjoying the mountains and turning into competent winter climbers.
- Skills
- Selecting the right winter clothing and equipment for your comfort and safety.
 - Using avalanche reports, weather forecasts and timing to plan your day well.
 - Understanding how snow pack forms and changes to assess avalanche risk.
 - Accurately navigating to the start of your route with efficiency and speed.
 - Travelling safely on steep snow when approaching and exiting your climb.
 - Moving in balance on steep ice, rock and snow with two axes and crampons.
 - Building safe anchors in ice, rock and snow for protection, belays and abseils.
 - Slick rope work and belay changeovers to save time and prevent problems.
- Group Just two clients to one instructor so you can maximise learning with 1:1 coaching.

The Aonach Eagach Ridge, Glen Coe

“A fantastic week. Great company, great climbs and great instruction.” - Steve

Daytime We leave at 8am and return by 6pm or we make the most of the weather: starting with the stars and catching the sunrise or seeing the sunset and finishing with the moon. You can progress onto harder climbs through the week and you can follow the best climbing conditions in these areas with a rest day mid-week:

Glen Coe - Buchaille Etive Mor, Stob Coire nan Lochan & The Aonach Eagach.
Ben Nevis - The immense, awesome north-face of 'The Ben' & Aonach Mor too.
Creag Meagaidh - Coire Ardair is second only to 'The Ben' in size and scale.
The Cairngorms - Easy access to the Northern Corries with parking above 500m.

Ability You can carry a full 30-40L rucksack, walking at 5km/hour on 8-hour mountain days and you have some previous experience of rock climbing, winter mountaineering and/or winter climbing.

Transport You can drive or catch public transport to Glencoe with a bus from Glasgow.

“Thanks again for a fantastic week. Both the climbing and the company were top notch.” - Tomas

- Cottage Our chalet is perfectly situated right in the heart of Glencoe and next door to the fabulous Clachaig Inn. It has an open fire in a spacious sitting room, a large dining area, cosy central heating and two bathrooms.
- Evenings Dinner, sorting kit, checking weather forecasts, developing avalanche awareness, navigation training, planning the next day and enjoying each other's company. Bringing a group of friendly people together is a great feature of our winter weeks.
- Food Healthy, nutritious, ideal for mountain days, sourced as locally as possible, with vegetarian and vegan options, adaptable to your individual needs and lovingly prepared by our wonderful chalet host.
- Equipment You will be given ice axes, crampons, helmet, harness, map and a compass. You will need to bring your own winter mountain boots, waterproofs, warm clothing, rucksack and a head torch. See the kit list below for more advice...

The North Face Of Ben Nevis

"Really impressed with our instructor. I learned a great deal and had a great time." - Michael
